I would like this response to be anonymous (the response may be published, but no name)

Q1. Which of the following expresses your view of creating a new offence of assault against a worker in the retail sector?

Fully supportive

Please explain the reasons for your response

Basic human right to be free from violence or intimidation

Q2. Which of the following would you support as a way to respond to assaults on workers upholding statutory age-restrictions?

A new statutory offence

Please explain the reasons for your response

Deserve Same protection as police

Q3. Which of the following would you support as a way to respond to abuse, harassment, threatening or obstruction of workers upholding statutory age-restrictions?

Either

Please explain the reasons for your response

Not sure that all cases would be of a generic type - some people being generally abusive. So perhaps standard sentencing would be more appropriate

Q4. Do you think that there are other steps which could be taken (either instead of, or in addition to, legislation) to achieve the aims of the proposal?

No

Please explain the reasons for your response.

Education would seem ineffective so would give legal protection

Q5. Taking account of both costs and potential savings, what financial impact would you expect the proposed Bill to have on:

Q5.1. (a) Government and the public sector - Some increase in cost

Q5.2. (b) Businesses - Broadly cost neutral

Q5.3. (c) Individuals - Some reduction in cost

Please explain the reasons for your responses.

Q6. Are there ways in which the Bill could achieve its aim more cost-effectively (e.g. by reducing costs or increasing savings)?

Yes

Please explain the reasons for your responses.

Imposing fines proportional to income of perpetrator, minimum £50; not affecting the conviction

Q7. What overall impact is the proposed Bill likely to have on equality, taking account of the following protected groups (under the Equality Act 2010): race, disability, sex, gender re-assignment, age, religion and belief, sexual orientation, marriage and civil partnership, pregnancy and maternity?

Positive

Please explain the reasons for your responses.

Perceived vulnerable groups will always receive more frequent targeting - statutory protection will definitely provide them with some assurance

Q8. In what ways could any negative impact of the proposed Bill on equality be minimised or avoided?

A clever and campaign explaining the need

Q9. Do you consider that the proposed Bill can be delivered sustainably i.e. without having likely future disproportionate economic, social and/or environmental impacts?

Yes

Please explain the reasons for your responses.

It's only setting a minimum standard of decent behaviour - if that's disproportionate then a wider debate on what rights a citizen can expect in our society

Q10. Do you have any other comments or suggestions on the proposal, for example, other trigger points for violence and abuse, and other workers who should be covered?

Can't recall your list, but medical staff, bar staff, traffic wardens, teachers
