Q1. Which of the following expresses your view of creating a new offence of assault against a worker in the retail sector?

Fully supportive

Please explain the reasons for your response

As I work as a door supervisor I understand the risks involved in the job. Far too often I have seen door staff lose their jobs because a member of the public has claimed assault even though by law we can physically remove someone from the licensed premises with reasonable force if they refuse to cooperate and leave when asked. It's worse when it's a female as she then claims she has been handled inappropriately which results in a sexual assault claim.

Q2. Which of the following would you support as a way to respond to assaults on workers upholding statutory age-restrictions?

A new statutory offence

Please explain the reasons for your response

When someone is asked to leave a licensed premises by door staff or bar staff they should leave failure to do so should get them charged for breach of the peace as it cause too much hassle than it's worth removing them from the premises and dealing with a

Q3. Which of the following would you support as a way to respond to abuse, harassment, threatening or obstruction of workers upholding statutory age-restrictions?

A new statutory offence (for all these types of behaviour)

No

Please explain the reasons for your response.

Q5. Taking account of both costs and potential savings, what financial impact would you expect the proposed Bill to have on:

Q5.1. (a) Government and the public sector - Broadly cost neutral

Q5.2. (b) Businesses - Some reduction in cost

Q5.3. (c) Individuals - Broadly cost neutral

Please explain the reasons for your responses.

Q6. Are there ways in which the Bill could achieve its aim more cost-effectively (e.g. by reducing costs or increasing savings)?

Yes

Please explain the reasons for your responses.

Making it a criminal offence refusing to leave a premises or at least a fine as the problem only gets worse when people have to be physically escorted out.

Q7. What overall impact is the proposed Bill likely to have on equality, taking account of the following protected groups (under the Equality Act 2010): race, disability, sex, gender re-assignment, age, religion and belief, sexual orientation, marriage and civil partnership, pregnancy and maternity?

Positive

Please explain the reasons for your responses.
