Q1. Which of the following expresses your view of creating a new offence of assault against a worker in the retail sector?

Unsure

Please explain the reasons for your response

There are laws already in place to cover this type of offence

Q2. Which of the following would you support as a way to respond to assaults on workers upholding statutory age-restrictions?

Neither

Please explain the reasons for your response

As previous question

Q3. Which of the following would you support as a way to respond to abuse, harassment, threatening or obstruction of workers upholding statutory age-restrictions?

Neither

Please explain the reasons for your response

Laws are already in place

Q4. Do you think that there are other steps which could be taken (either instead of, or in addition to, legislation) to achieve the aims of the proposal?

Unsure

Please explain the reasons for your response.

The police could be informed to make these type of calls a top priority

Q5. Taking account of both costs and potential savings, what financial impact would you expect the proposed Bill to have on:

Q5.1. (a) Government and the public sector - Unsure

Q5.2. (b) Businesses - Unsure

Q5.3. (c) Individuals - Unsure

Please explain the reasons for your responses.

Unsure because the law already covers this

Q6. Are there ways in which the Bill could achieve its aim more cost-effectively (e.g. by reducing costs or increasing savings)?

Unsure

Please explain the reasons for your responses.

If the law already covers this type of offence then why do we need a bill specific one for shop and pub workers

Q7. What overall impact is the proposed Bill likely to have on equality, taking account of the following protected groups (under the Equality Act 2010): race, disability, sex, gender re-assignment, age, religion and belief, sexual orientation, marriage and civil partnership, pregnancy and maternity?

Neutral (neither positive nor negative)

Please explain the reasons for your responses.

I dont see the conection to the above groups about assault in the work place

Q8. In what ways could any negative impact of the proposed Bill on equality be minimised or avoided?

Why does it matter if you are breaking the law then so be it

Q9. Do you consider that the proposed Bill can be delivered sustainably i.e. without having likely future disproportionate economic, social and/or environmental impacts?

Unsure

Please explain the reasons for your responses.

You are trying to protect workers from assaults at work then as i see it the laws are there to do that just needs the politicts of those who hold the purse string to allow the assault of the workers to put up priority list

Q10. Do you have any other comments or suggestions on the proposal, for example, other trigger points for violence and abuse, and other workers who should be covered?
