Q1. Which of the following expresses your view of creating a new offence of assault against a worker in the retail sector?

Partially supportive

Please explain the reasons for your response

There are already offences to cover assault.

Q2. Which of the following would you support as a way to respond to assaults on workers upholding statutory age-restrictions?

Neither

Please explain the reasons for your response

there are already offences of threatening behaviour and assault.

Q3. Which of the following would you support as a way to respond to abuse, harassment, threatening or obstruction of workers upholding statutory age-restrictions?

Neither

as above

Q4. Do you think that there are other steps which could be taken (either instead of, or in addition to, legislation) to achieve the aims of the proposal?

Yes

Please explain the reasons for your response.

Employers should be responsible for the safety in a workplace. No lone workers without support.

Q5. Taking account of both costs and potential savings, what financial impact would you expect the proposed Bill to have on:

Q5.1. (a) Government and the public sector - Broadly cost neutral

Q5.2. (b) Businesses - Broadly cost neutral

Q5.3. (c) Individuals - Broadly cost neutral

Please explain the reasons for your responses.

It is just another offence on the statute

Q6. Are there ways in which the Bill could achieve its aim more cost-effectively (e.g. by reducing costs or increasing savings)?

Unsure

Please explain the reasons for your responses.

Q7. What overall impact is the proposed Bill likely to have on equality, taking account of the following protected groups (under the Equality Act 2010): race, disability, sex, gender re-assignment, age, religion and belief, sexual orientation, marriage and civil partnership, pregnancy and maternity?

Neutral (neither positive nor negative)

Please explain the reasons for your responses.

It would make no difference.

Q8. In what ways could any negative impact of the proposed Bill on equality be minimised or avoided?

Q9. Do you consider that the proposed Bill can be delivered sustainably i.e. without having likely future disproportionate economic, social and/or environmental impacts?

Yes

Please explain the reasons for your responses.

Q10. Do you have any other comments or suggestions on the proposal, for example, other trigger points for violence and abuse, and other workers who should be covered?

*No worker to be left on their own in any premises likely to have an adverse response from customers.
Employing enough Police to respond effectively. End the Policing of Inverness, Dundee etc from Glasgow.
Return police to communities. Provide adequate support for those with Alcohol, drug and mental health issues. More carrot less stick.*
